CITY IN BRIEF.

Link Reed was arrested yesterday by Patrolmen Boylan and Haley for the alleged theft of some clothing from the Mozart Hall.

The State Board of Health has prepared a table of developmental diseases, which shows that during the year 1884 326 persons died of old age and 236 of premature birth.

County Auditor Adams takes occasion to say that all the interviews with him reported in the papers on the subject of the Marion County tax levy are false. "There is nothing in them."

Five car loads of slate from Pennsylvania are en route to this place, to be used on the roof of the new State-house. Each slate is twenty-four inches long, twelve inches wide and one-half inch thick.

Upon the authority of one of the most reliable of men, himself an officer, peace and harmony exist between all the Constables of this township, with favorable reports from some of the out townships.

DeWitt C. Rugg, son of the late Samuel Rugg, who was Superintendent of Public Instruction from 1859 to 1861 and from 1867 to 1869, has presented to the Department of Education a very fine oil painting of his father.

It is said that the custom of John Trom to telephone his wife when he quit his work that he was coming home. On the night he was killed he had for some reason failed to telephone her, and before she heard of his death she said something had happened to him.

M. E. Shiel, late editor of the Monitor-Journal, is taking steps towards starting a temperance organ at Louisville, Kentucky. The prohibitionists of Kentucky will meet in State Convention at Louisville on the 24th instant, and Mr. Shiel expects to complete his arrangements for starting the organ at that time. It can not be denied that Kenucky presents a large field for the work of a temperance paper.

Andrew Janaca, a crazy man, under arrest at the Central Station last night, tore up a large portion of the flooring in the "big room."

A lively struggle is said to be in progress over the appointment as Postmaster at Broad Ripple, this county. The little village is divided into factions, and figurative eye-gouging and hair-pulling are the order of the day.

Springer, who "called the turn" on Frank Whiting recently, at Haughville, was not indicted by the Grand Jury. Whiting's friends want to secure his release on his personal recognizance, he to leave the State when so released.

To Have a Reputation for Square Dealing.

Our frequent advertisements of actual bargains in Shoes never fail to draw an immense patronage in the succeeding days, the demand for the advertised articles only abating when replaced by a similar inducement in a different department. Our method is to have a standing attraction so arranged, that in turn each department is represented. We place on special sale To-Morrow and Tuesday a line of Ladies' Kid Boots and a lot of Ladies' Fine Kid Sandal Slippers, made expressly for our retail trade. Both lots are guaranteed good quality, and the reader is assured they are fully one-third less than usual city prices.
